

Confirmation Covenant at First Presbyterian Church

The Confirmation covenant is our attempt to put our intentions in writing. We (students, parents, and Confirmation leaders) are committing to a course of reflection, practice, and discussion in order to gain an understanding of the Christian faith and what that means for our engagement with our world.

Student

I, _____ commit to showing up and to thoughtful participation in the Confirmation process. I will do what is in my power to attend the agreed upon discussions, events, and worship services. I understand that I am responsible for:
